Charlene Williams Peyton dazzles in the Musical Fireworks concert of Spirituals, Gospel, and Classical Songs. The concert is set on Sunday, June 20th, 2010 at 3:30 P.M. Music at Trinity hosts the community concert series at Trinity Episcopal Church, located at 1500 State and Micheltorena Streets in Santa Barbara. The community is cordially invited to celebrate the season at the Music Fireworks concert.

Charlene Peyton's encore program features songs of challenge and encouragement. Songs by Mozart, Mendelssohn, and Malotte share the offerings with Spirituals and Gospel songs arranged by Charlene Peyton, including her own composition, "That my House may be Full."

Charlene Williams Peyton is a native of Denver, Colorado, and the daughter of a Baptist minister. She earned degrees from Azusa Pacific University and Southeast Missouri State University. As an Air Force wife, she travelled and concertized in Europe, and directed military chapel choirs and the "Charlene Peyton Singers." She has recorded two albums of contemporary Christian music with a ladies quartet and three solo albums. She performed as a soloist with the Tacoma (Washington) Symphony. Upon completion of her career as a public school music educator, she currently directs the choir at the Washington Correctional Center for Women at Purdy.

The community is welcome to celebrate at the Musical Fireworks concert with Charlene Williams Peyton singing songs of challenge and encouragement on Sunday, June 20th at 3:30 P.M. Music at Trinity hosts the community concert series at Trinity Episcopal Church, 1500 State and Micheltorena Streets, Santa Barbara. # # #
