Abendmusik! Baroque and Beyond Concert celebrates the legacy of Danish organist and composer Dietrich Buxtehude and Friends on Sunday, October 10th, 2010 at 3:30 P.M. Music at Trinity welcomes the community to the concert series. The Abendmusik! Baroque and Beyond Concert launches the twenty-eighth season of Music at Trinity. Trinity Episcopal Church hosts the gala opening at 1500 State and Micheltorena Streets in Santa Barbara, California.

Concert artist David A. Gell's program features music for the King of Instruments from the seventeenth- to the twentieth-century. The centerpiece of the concert honors the legacy of Dietrich Buxtehude with his Prelude & Fugue in f-sharp minor, J. S. Bach's Prelude & Fugue in e-flat (St. Anne), Joseph Rheinberger's Pastoral Sonata in C, and selections by Jan Reinken and Johann G. Walther.

David A. Gell's contribution as a concert artist is unique. He melds the church music ministry and the concert organist venue. His musical offerings span the centuries of the Baroque and Beyond.

Celebrate Abendmusik! Baroque and Beyond Concert on Sunday, October 10th, 2010 at 3:30 P.M. Music at Trinity hosts the free community concert at the Trinity Episcopal Church, located at 1500 State and Micheltorena Streets in Santa Barbara. # # #
